

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The interest in the Presidential election, which has been the absorbing one for the past two days, has now given place to anxiety respecting the political composition of the House of Representatives. Both parties claim majorities with the same cheerful confidence that was displayed Tuesday night. It is evident that the result will be close, and later returns from doubtful districts are relied upon by the Republicans to give an assured majority. The importance of the Republicans having control of the House as well as the Senate in the next Congress is apparent. Should the National Legislature be Republican, bills will be passed to admit Dakota as two States and to also admit as States Montana and Washington Territories. The election returns show that Montana has changed from Democratic to Republican, and the admission of four States from three Northwestern Territories would four years hence deprive New York of her great importance as a decisive factor in national contests.

It is possible that two Democratic Electors have won in New York State. There is no doubt but that thirty-four out of the thirty-six will be Republican, but the prospects that two Electors will be Democrats are increasing. If this comes about it will be one of the results of the deal between the United Labor party and the Republicans. Quay arranged with Coogan that the Republican National Committee would supply most of the money used in labor campaigns. In return the Labor party was to support Miller for Governor, and run out Republican electoral tickets with Colonel Coogan and a Labor candidate for Coroner. The electoral ticket issued by the Labor party included the names of four electors with the names of two Labor electors at the head. The result of this may be that Oswald, Ottendorfer and Wilson S. Bissell, who headed the Democratic ticket of Electors at large, may have a small plurality in the State but less than 1,300. There is no reason why if the labor vote is large enough why 34 votes of New York's 36 should not be cast for Harrison, with the other two for Cleveland. If this turns out to be the case it will appear that the labor vote carried the State for Harrison.

The Republicans have a good working majority in the House in the Fifty-first Congress. They will elect its Speaker, organize the committees and select the officers. The persons most prominently spoken of for Speaker are Reed—who was given the complimentary vote of his party when Carlisle was elected—and Messrs. McKinley, Cannon, Butterworth and Burrows. Randall got the complimentary vote of his party when Keifer was elected Speaker at the beginning of the Forty-seventh Congress, yet when the Democrats came in to power they elected Carlisle.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—There is no basis of fact for ninety-nine per cent. of the wild speculations telegraphed from Washington respecting President-elect Harrison's legislative policy after March 4th. There is not a Republican politician in Washington who imagines for one moment that Harrison will convene the Fifty-first Congress in extra session to revise the tariff. There will be no extra session of Congress, except the extra session of the Senate to confirm President Harrison's nomination, and all talk to the contrary is idle speculation.

The Sacramento Bee says the talk about making Ben Butler Attorney General in Harrison's Cabinet will probably be greeted with a sneer, but General Harrison might very easily make a selection inferior to "rare old Ben." Of his ability as a lawyer and his integrity there can be no doubt or question. He would come out of the Cabinet unscathed by scandals like the Pan-Electric affair which has made Cleveland's Attorney-General an apologist wherever he may appear.

The Supreme Court of the United States, denied the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of David S. Terry, of California, convicted of contempt of Court for the violent scene in which he and his wife attacked the officers of the Court.

Whitlaw Reid and Murat Halstead, editors of the New York Tribune and Cincinnati Gazette, are candidates for foreign missions.

Nevada, according to population, gave Harrison the largest majority of any State in the Union.

Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada, would be a daisy for Secretary of the Treasury.

THE SLATE-MAKERS.

Talk of Edmunds, Butler and Blaine for Cabinet Positions.

Boston, November 10.—The slate-makers here have been busy all day over the prognostications from Washington. It is insisted that Edmunds will be Attorney-General. A new candidate, however, has arisen in the person of General Butler. His friends claim that his taking the stump for Harrison and throwing over to him the Butler vote, particularly in New York and Michigan, gave these States to Harrison and demands a fitting reward. A personal friend of the General's says he is really anxious to have it.

A report from Augusta says that Mrs. Blaine is opposed to her husband taking the State Department, as she does not care to go back to Washington after having been so disappointed four years ago—after making such preparations for occupying the White House. She is socially ambitious, however, and is trying to persuade him to accept the British mission instead. His political friends declare it will be his political funeral to leave the country, and the "magnetic man" is having anything but a congenial time between his family and his followers.

CONGRESS.

The Sacramento Record-Union says: Assuming the present showings to be authentic, and not liable to any material modification, the next Congress will be Republican. This will give the Administration of public affairs over wholly to the Republican party, and there will be no division of responsibility. As there is always danger in such a position, the outlook is for a demand of wisdom by the Republican party of the highest order, and for discretion that will permit of no blundering. Of one thing the country ought to feel assured, that the claims of North and South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana and Washington Territory will now be considered, and that all or such part of these as are entitled, will be admitted to Statehood. At least three of those named have population far in excess of that of Georgia or Alabama, and one exceeds California, and though in all other respects they have proved themselves to be duly qualified, they have been kept out of the sovereign States for purely political reasons. The carving of States out of Territories should not be involved with party politics. It should proceed upon considerations above and beyond party claims and advantages. The new Congress will have cast upon it the responsibility of admitting or refusing these Territories upon purely economic grounds and upon the justice of the claims preferred. We are confident that when the Fifty-first Congress is assembled, the Territories that are clearly qualified to become States, will not be kept knocking at the door, no matter what their political complexion.

Destructive School Methods.

The originality and native precocity of youth are often lost in the automatic drills of the classroom. Incipient talent and genius must die out in the mind of the possessor from sheer lack of appreciation and sympathy on the part of those to whom the youth trustingly looks for aid and encouragement. Perhaps it would be regarded as extravagant to assert that the end of a long course of instruction leaves nine-tenths of graduates wholly at the mercy of the world which they have been taught to believe themselves fitted to enter and conquer. They may soon discover, however, that the wide fields of experience and knowledge are yet before them, and that the inclination and disposition for their further pursuit have been left dull and anesthetic by the scholastic training received. Books and literature are now distasteful to them. They will be but too happy to ignore the classics; history has been studied too much. Admit that their minds have been filled with the elements of knowledge, that their intellectual powers have been disciplined and strengthened all they are sneaky and tough, how is it that the mind which comes to the tasks of life with a training and knowledge gained out of the schools by reading, private study, and self-help, often measures up to, nay, outstrips the college-bred mind? The question is easily answered. The methods of the schools destroy originality and versatility of mind by anticipating and preventing the self-help necessary to give every mind self-reliance and independent power.—American Magazine.

A Silver Tea Set in the Mint.

Many curious articles are taken to the United States Mint from time to time for conversion into solid cash. Said Superintendent Fox: "A short time ago a lady sent a trunk to the mint filled with silverware. She was an aged lady and was wealthy. I called upon her to see why she had sent the trunk of silverware, and to apprise her of the fact that she would realize but little upon it, inasmuch as the Government allowed no more than the absolute value of the metal for any articles sent to the mint. She said to me: 'I don't care what it brings. That trunk contains a service of silver which I prize most highly. It was the gift of my father to my mother on their wedding day, and I don't want it to fall into any other hands. I don't want those precious pieces, sacred to me, to become the property of others. They were the gift of my dear father to my sainted mother more than eighty years ago, and when they died they came into my hands. What I want you to do, Mr. Fox, is to see that the service of silver is placed in the crucible and melted up. I want you to see it done yourself. I don't care anything about the amount of money it will realize. I promised I would attend to it and carried out her desires.'—Philadelphia Telegraph.

CURRENT ITEMS.

Bentley—"I understand that the beautiful Miss Beauford has at last accepted Poseybay. Has her heart become softened, I wonder?" Sattly—"No, her head, I guess."—Burlington Free Press.

Miss Westland—"O, Miss Tiptop, is it true that while abroad you became engaged to the Duke of Oldcastle?" Miss Tiptop (reluctantly)—"No, but my waiting maid got acquainted with his valet."—Philadelphia Record.

An item is going the rounds credited to this paper alleging that the bustle is liable to explode and should be labeled "hazardous." We never said it. Bustles are as safe as coal-scuttles. We've held many of them on our lap without risk.—Detroit Free Press.

Philadelphia—"Is there much musical culture in Prairie City?" Water-er—"Musical culture? Well, I should smile. Why, sir, the Prairie City folks just turn out and mob the Salvation Army every time the brass drummer gets out of tune with the cornet."—Philadelphia Record.

Pompano—"There goes a man who, in one respect, is the most remarkable man I ever knew. De Baggs—"Looks like a common, every-day sort of a chap. What has he done?" Pompano (un-ressively)—"He is the only man I ever met whom the habit of early rising did not render offensive."—Time.

Shoe dealer (to clerk)—"William, why did you insist upon selling to that old gentleman, who went out, a pair of small, soft shoes when he called for large cowhide boots?" "Well—" "I insist upon knowing." "The fact is, I call on his daughter quite frequently in the evenings."—Philadelphia Cal.

Old Heavyweight—"Confound it, Jack, you'll kill yourself smoking. I'm sure that is your tenth cigar to-day." Jack (from Yale)—"Thirteenth, Governor, 'pon honor." Heavyweight (sternly)—"Horrible! Look at me! I never smoke more than two cigars a day." Jack—"Neither would I if I had to smoke your cigars, Governor."—Time.

"How is your papa getting along?" asked Mrs. Yeast of the Crimsonback boy the other day, when she was waiting for his mother to make her appearance in the parlor. "O, bully. He's going to build a house." "Going to build a house! How do you know that?" "Well, I heard mamma say he brings a brick home in his hat every night."—Youkers Statesman.

Maud (who answered the door bell herself)—"George, you must not come into this house to-night. If you love me, darling, fly at once, and do not let my father discover your presence." George (tragically)—"O, Maud, my darling! What serpent has entered your Eden to wreck our happiness? Speak, girl, speak!" Maud (tearfully)—"Father has just come home with the gas bill."—Lowell Citizen.

The Virginia Chronicle says: Edward P. Holmes and Thomas W. O'Connor are the only Democratic nominees elected on the Assembly ticket in this county, knowing under big Fat McNamara and T. R. Farr. Had other Democratic nominees exhibited half the energy of Thomas O'Connor in securing votes, Storey county would have sent a Democratic delegation to the Assembly branch of the Legislature to convene in January, 1889. Frank McKenny, Democratic nominee for constable of Gold Hill, was also elected, which with Justice of the Peace, Kehoe and County Commissioner Estep completes the list of five successful Democratic nominees.

A WARNING.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may cost you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boech's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. WHITE PINE COUNTY RETURNS.—The complete returns of White Pine county show the total vote cast to be 600; Harrison, 380; Cleveland, 214; Cassidy, 253; Bartine, 340.
With a Republican Senate and House of Representatives and a Republican President, if the promises of the party are fulfilled, we shall expect to see the wages of labor largely increased, free coinage of silver, with the Carson Mint turning out silver dollars by the bushel, and Nevada wool worth 25 cents a pound next year. Let the sheepmen rejoice.—Elko Independent.

MURDERER LYNCHED.

Indignant Nevadans Avenger a Fellow Townsman's Death.

AUSTIN, Nev., Nov. 10th.—News has just reached here concerning a tragedy at Cortez, ninety miles from here, brought by Deputy Sheriff W. J. Higby and Amos Corbett. Davis Sabani, an Italian, shot Richard Holt last Wednesday evening in the stomach, inflicting a mortal wound, the latter dying in twenty-four hours. His dying request was that he should get justice, and the Court should hang his murderer. Sabani had no cause, but shot Holt because he could not get a loan of money. Parties took the murderer to a place near the Cortez mill and lynched him by throwing a rope over the limb of a tree and hoisting him by the neck. The Deputy Sheriff found his body tied to a bedpost at a boarding house. Life had been extinct about ten hours. The men would say nothing about it, saying he must have committed suicide. The knot was under his left ear, and the rope had cut into the flesh of his neck. Coroner Joseph Moss left here last night to hold an inquest. Holt had a good reputation, and was generally liked. Sabani was only 22 years old, and of unsavory reputation, having been in a number of shooting scrapes, and he was run off a "ranch lately by the rancher with a Winchester rifle. There is much feeling in Cortez over the lawlessness of the community, and lynching has been spoken of to make an example. The funeral of Holt was attended by most of the residents.

Elko's Vote.—The Elko Independent says: According to our figures we make the following majorities: Banard, 54; Morgan, 13; Love, 11. Henderson, Rigby, Murray and Corryell are elected beyond question, and our count on State Senator gives Russell 746, and Sproule 746; a tie which will require an official canvass to determine, and should the Commissioners decide the vote a tie it will require another election for the office of State Senator. Mr. Sproule claims a majority of 2 votes in the county, and the discrepancy appears in the vote of Tecoma, where the Independent gives Russell 4 and Sproule 10. The Free Press gives the vote at that precinct, Russell, 3; Sproule 11. Otherwise our figures agree, and if his returns are correct it gives Russell 745, and Sproule 747, a majority of 2 for Sproule as he claims.

Two Tones to His Voice.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: According to Mr. Cleveland's Thanksgiving proclamation we are the most favored and prosperous people in the world. He must have been sadly mistaken, then, when he wrote his last annual message declaring that protection was paralyzing our industries and exposing us to grave danger of National bankruptcy.

The Perfection

Of the age in the medical line is the liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, California. It is agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless yet prompt and thorough in its action. Sold by Wm. Fininger, Reno.

LAKE TAHOE IN WINTER.

A Proposition to Keep the Road Open in Winter for Sleighing Parties.

Thomas Magee, correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin, writes to that journal from Lake Tahoe that "$500 would keep the road open all winter for sleighs. If the railroad company would pay $200 of this sum, others up here, I think, would contribute the balance. "Snow and sleigh-riding, perhaps the most fondly cherished memories of youthful days in the older and colder States, would thus be brought within the reach of the residents of the snowless and almost frostless valleys, and would prove in health benefit, as I can personally testify, more valuable than any mountain trip possible in summer."

TOWNSHIP OFFICERS.

Outside Precincts Heard From.

At the recent election the following township officers were elected:

Justice of the Peace, Loyal A. Potter; Constable, Joseph Berger; School Trustees, A. Sauer Wm. Gregory.

PYRAMID.

Wadsworth Items.

(Correspondence Truckee Republican.)
Hurrah for Harrison. Sick Democrats! Jubilant Republicans!

Over fifteen hundred dollars changed hands on the election at this place.

J. W. Smith, delegate to the convention of Locomotive Engineers at Richmond, Va., returned to Wadsworth Thursday evening.

Several new houses are being built in town, as there is not a vacant house in the place and houses to rent are in demand.

Considerable excitement was raised in the Railroad Company's boiler shop last Thursday by one of the helpers going insane. The first indication of his condition was when he emerged from one of the new engine tanks being built in the shops, where he has been working for some time, flourishing a pistol and attacked one of the boiler makers, Bob Ritcher. After a struggle he was disarmed before he could do any damage. He was taken to Reno by Constable Crosby and lodged in the asylum. There he would answer no questions, but he several times made the request not to be taken to Stockton again. The impression is that he has been an inmate of the asylum at that place some time in the past.

Tom Fitzgerald, train dispatcher, who has been absent for a couple of months on leave of absence, has returned to Wadsworth together with his wife and child.

Alex. Wise came in from Winnemucca Sunday night en route to Carson on District Fair business.

NEW ORLEANS, La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS! OUR LATEST IMPROVEMENTS!

"Competition is the life of trade," and if you have not seen our latest improved goods you cannot imagine their quality or value. We have a new line of shoes which only a few years ago were retail at eight or ten dollars. If you will try on a pair you will be convinced that we do not exaggerate. Our art is the original $3 and $4 shoes, and those who follow us in our line of business are unable to compete with us in quality of factory products. In our line we are the largest manufacturers in the United States.

One of our traveling salesmen who is now visiting the shoe retailers of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Region writes from there as follows: "I am more than satisfied with the result of my trip. I have thus far succeeded in placing our full line in the hands of a No. 1 dealer in every city I have visited." He goes on to say: "This is a splendid reason for us to sell shoes in, here, a host of the retailers are charging their customers as much as double the prices which the shoes have cost at wholesale. The consequence is that the people who wear shoes are paying six or seven dollars a pair for shoes which are not worth as much as our shoes with their very low retail prices stamped on the soles of every pair are bringing down the retail prices which have hitherto ruled in the retail markets here, and when a retailer puts a full line of goods in, his stock they at once begin to go off like hot cakes, so great is the demand for them."

Now, kind reader, just stop and consider what the above signifies so far as you are concerned. It assures you that if you keep on buying shoes bearing no manufacturer's name or fixed, full price stamped on the soles, you cannot tell what you are getting, or your retailer is probably making you pay double what your shoes have cost him. Now, can you afford to do this while we are making you pay for the shoes we can make to pay more for your shoes than they are worth? Shoes from our celebrated factory are sold by wholesale retailers in all parts of the country. We place them easily within your reach in any State or Territory if you will instruct one of our agents in a postal card and write to us.
